Newtown Man Is Held in Bail; Say He Shot Pony

Howard S. Tierney, 58, in $500 Bail for Further Hearing

NEWTOWN, Mar. 30 — Charged with killing a neighbor's pony, Howard S. Tierney, 58, father of screen actress Gene Tierney, is under $500 bail. Tierney appeared before Justice of Peace, Andrew H. Dillman who set a further hearing for Friday evening, when it is expected that Tierney's wife, Helen, now in Mercer Hospital, Trenton, with a broken foot, will be able to appear, as it is stated that she witnessed the shooting.

Mrs. Dorothy Martin, 35, who swore out the warrant charging Tierney with "wilfully and maliciously shooting a domestic animal"—a violation of a 1939 legislative act—testified that it happened March 18 when she released the pony from his stall.

The 18-year-old gelding, named Peter, was feeling "capricious" after being cooped up during a rainstorm she said, and took off for the woods separating her property from the Tierney property.

She said she was not worried—a call would always bring him back to the stall or paddock—and anyway she told Tierney after a previous escapade by Peter that she would pay for any damage he did.

Tierney never took her up on her offer. "I assumed he thought the damage to my soy field by his cows and pigs," she told Dillman.

Mrs. Martin raises goats on her 30 acres, selling the milk throughout the area. She calls the place Suric Farm, named for her children, Susan, 12, and Ricky, 9.

She said the first she knew of the trouble was when Mrs. Tierney telephoned to say that the pony was in the Tierney wheat field and that she had "better come over right away." Mrs. Tierney called back a minute later to report that her husband was shooting at Peter.

By the time she arrived at the adjoining farm, she said, the pony was dead. Tierney was standing over him with a .22-caliber rifle.

She quoted him as saying he "hadn't meant to kill" the pony and that he would buy her a new one, to which she replied:

"Will you buy new hearts for my children, too?"

Under questioning by Mrs. Martin's attorney, William L. Goldman, of Doylestown, Tierney insisted he "only wanted to scare him."

"I just wanted to hit him on the 'sitter,'" Tierney said.

The bullet struck the animal near the ear. A veterinarian said the pony died instantly.

Would-Be Intruder Flees; Leaves Finger-Prints

Two Young Girls Serving As Baby-Sitters Telephone Parents, Who Rush Home

A would-be intruder at a Bristol Terrace home last night fled before the occupants could recognize him, but left white fingerprints on a brown screen he tried to remove, according to Bristol twp. police.

Officers Harvey Shaw, Ernest Nuskey and George Nell, shortly after 10 p. m., responded to a call to 41 Murphy avenue, Terrace I., where Mildred Schwartz, 17, of 602 Court C, Terrace II., with a sister, was baby sitting for her brother, Marshall. The girls said they had heard a noise at a bedroom window, and seen the figure of a man outside, who fled.

The baby sitters telephoned their parents, who called the township police and rushed to the Murphy avenue house to find that the intruder had gone.

The officers investigating found marks on the bottom edge of the screen that indicated a tool had been used in attempting to force it. A tire Marshall Schwartz had left outside was found under the window, leaning against the wall, as if the burglar had stood upon it to tamper with the screen.

The fingerprints on the screen, Shaw said, were the result of dried white chalky paint getting on the burglar's fingers as he rubbed his hand on the wall of the house. Officer Charles Haines photographed the fingerprints on the screen. A prowler was reported at the same location three weeks ago, police said.

Completion of "Dream" Highway Not To Be Soon

Money is Not Available At This Time for the Much-Desired Roadway

Lower Bucks County residents need not expect completion of the "Backbone Highway" between Bristol and Quakertown anytime soon. But, according to highway officials in Harrisburg, it has not been scratched off the list. It was approved in 1945, started, and a stretch from Bristol to Pennel completed. There the "dream" ended. It will not be completed until more money is available, it is stated.

"There are many thousands of people that must be cared for in the lower end section of Bucks county and the necessary highways and highway improvements are being taken care of right now," the State Highway Department spokesman said.

The "Backbone Highway" was originally suggested by the Bucks County Bankers Association some years ago.

In 1945 the Courier printed a map showing the route of the proposed highway and at that time the Bristol-Quakertown route would have cost approximately $4,634,000.

Five years ago the plans approved by the Highway Department called for five stages of construction. The section from Bristol to Pennel has already been completed. Stage one, the Bristol end, was listed at $939,000; stage two, Langhorne portion, four miles, $1,073,000; stage three, Newtown portion, 6½ miles, $1,393,000; stage four, Doylestown portion, seven and four-tenths miles, $1,229,000; stage five, in Dublin and north of Quakertown near Shelly where the road is to connect with the Bethlehem Pike, five and one-tenth miles, $837,000.

The cost to complete the road today will be considerably more than estimated in 1945, and it is a known fact that funds at this time are not available and that the development of the lower-end area of Bucks county in the country's most rapidly developing industrial area, is of vital importance and has the preference.

The section of the "Dream Highway" from Bristol to Doylestown is the one over which there is heavy travel, as it connects Lower Bucks County with the county seat, over which those having court business travel.

Committee Tours River To View Industry Growth

U. S. Senator Edward Martin Says Adequate Waterway Is Very Essential

Delegations of the Congressional Public Works Committee, toured the upper Delaware river Saturday, to view the area for which a 40-foot channel is being urged. In the party was Senator Edward Martin, who spoke favorably for the project.

Martin said that with the Delaware River Valley rapidly becoming one of the world's major steel producing centers and Philadelphia holding a commanding place as an Atlantic port, an adequate waterway is essential.

The 40-foot channel now ends at the Philadelphia Naval Base, with a 37-foot channel north to Allentown, dropping off to 25 feet for the waterway to the Fairless Works of the U. S. Steel Co. at Morrisville.

A 40-foot channel all the way to Trenton has long been the aim of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

All three States were represented as groups from the Senate and House Public Works Committees boarded the pilot boat Philadelphia, at the Chestnut st. wharf, and sailed north to the Fairless plant.

Martin, senior member of the group, said while the 40-foot channel would be given primary consideration, full industrial development of the valley was part of the study.

Martin said while a 40-foot channel proposition was now before the budget committee, he assured its full support from himself and Senator James H. Duff, this State's two Senators, Senators H. Alexander, of New Jersey, and Senators John J. Williams and J. Allen Frear, Delaware. Frear is the lone Democrat.

He said that while a 40-foot channel is now essential, this project and other potential public works programs in the valley could well serve as a labor cushion in the event of a recession.

Representing the Senate committee with Martin was Senator Spessard L. Holland (D., Fla.).

Representatives in the delegation were Russell W. Mack, Washington; Alvin R. Bush and S. Walter Stauffer, Pennsylvania; Hubert B. Scudder, California; Myron V. George, Kansas; Charles B. Brownson, Indiana; Frank Small, Jr., Maryland; Herbert B. Warburton, Connecticut.

69,494 BUCKS COUNTIANS WILL BE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN MAY 19TH PRIMARY; DIVISION IS 50,352 REPUBLICANS, 19,144 DEMOCRATS

DOYLESTOWN, March 30 — A total of 69,494 Bucks county voters will be eligible to vote in the May 19 primary.

Saturday, the 28th was the last day to register before the election. With registration before the primary election closed the total stands at 50,352 Republicans and 19,144 Democrats on the county registration lists.

According to Robert F. Detweiler, clerk of the Registration Commission an additional 2485 are registered "No Party" and 317 are registered for the other parties—Socialist, Independent, etc. These persons will of course be ineligible to vote for either the Democratic or Republican candidates in the Primary.

"Registration has been light," said Detweiler, who added that the total number registered now is almost 2000 less than were registered before the general election last November.

He attributed most of the drop in registration to the cancellation of 3097 names from the registration list in January because these persons had not registered or voted in a municipal election in the past two years.

Great Hymns of Palm Sunday Are Re-Echoed

Choirs, Congregations Take Part; Number of Admissions To Churches

"Ride on! ride on in majesty!" "The Palms" and other great hymns of the Christian church were re-echoed yesterday when followers of Jesus Christ observed the anniversary of the day in which he triumphantly entered Jerusalem.

Music and verses which have captured the glory of that event were sung by congregations, choirs and specialists throughout Christendom.

Clergymen, in their messages for the day, prefaced them in many instances on this verse from Matthew: "And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David; blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest."

Churches were filled with worshippers

EXPERT ON CYCLES

The Senate has voted to confirm Dr. Arthur F. Burns as the only member of President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers. There had been signs that it would not take much urging to get Congress to do away with the council altogether.

In the short history of the council are to be found a number of reasons for this attitude. Probably the chief one is the fact the advisers tended to give advice that called for action by Congress in line with requests from the White House. There was a strong belief that Truman used the council as dressing for his own plans, and one head of the council resigned and gave that as the reason.

Congress' lack of enthusiasm for the council, however, did not prevent President Eisenhower from naming Dr. Burns to be a member of it. As the Truman appointees have resigned, he is the council.

Dr. Burns is described as an expert on business cycles. He used his position as director of research for the National Bureau of Economic Research to set up techniques for the continual study of business cycles. He does not profess to know all about them, but he believes that if careful studies are constantly pursued it will be possible to learn more. At any rate, he seems to be more interested in economics than in politics.

PARIS IN THE SPRING

Among other harbingers of you-know-what arriving at editorial desks lately is an intriguing little news letter called the Paris International Trade Fair Bulletin. The fair, which the editors say is the "shop window of the world," will be held May 9 to 25. There will be 11,000 exhibitors scattered over a 125-acre plot, and 3,000,000 visitors are expected.

This little news letter is, to say the least, intriguing. It is sort of a shop window in its own right. In the general interest category is the news that the Eiffel Tower is about to get a new coat of paint, and that the project will take until 1955.

This landmark will be a high visibility yellow at the top, a beige color in its middle, and "nut brown" at the bottom.

British investors are told that under a novel guarantee plan shareholders in the French utility Electricite de France cannot receive less than a 4.5 per cent return. If the cost of current goes up with the cost of living, interest value rises in proportion. It seems there is a free one-day tour around Paris, "ending with an evening at a Paris theater," for those telling a good anecdote about this most beautiful of all cities.

Sporadic attempts to reduce the number of special "weeks" in observance of this or that have again received a setback. The governor of Pennsylvania has proclaimed Acute Appendicitis Week.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Nov. 17, 1904. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

HULMEVILLE — The house occupied by William Douglass and family on south Main street, came very near being burned down on election morning. The fire started in the old fireplace after the family had retired for the night and was not discovered until next morning, when Mrs. Douglass got up at five o'clock and came down stairs and found the fireplace all burned out and the floor all ablaze around it. She called Mr. Douglass and they extinguished it themselves without calling for any assistance.

TULLYTOWN — Leland and Hoagland, our butchers, are again at work manufacturing their renowned sausage and scrapple. Try it and be convinced of its good quality.

George L. Horn, Samuel Fenton, John W. Foster and E. W. Minster are spending a week in the vicinity of Harrisonville, Fulton county, Pa., where they are hunting in the mountain streams for terrapin.

Among the passengers on board the steamer "Merion" which went around near Chester during the storm on Sunday and who were taken aboard the steamer Columbia were Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Allison, who were just returning from a trip to Scotland.

One of the finest political parades ever seen in Bristol was witnessed last Saturday evening when the Republicans celebrated the victory achieved in county, State and Nation.

The affair was hurriedly gotten up and the credit of the successful event belongs to John T. Smith, who arranged all the details, solicited the funds and invited the participants.

The columns stretched from Mill street up Radcliffe to Dorrance street. At the head of the line rode twenty-five horsemen, led by Chief Marshall E. W. Minster and aide. Then followed the Liberty Cornet Band, a company of boys who carried a large American flag, a wagon load of young ladies from Grundy's mill who carried flags and sang. Second and Fifth ward delegations of voters, Junior Republicans with transparencies, First, Third and Fourth ward delegations, the Eddington Cadet Band, St. Cecilia Military (Italian) Band, Silver Leaf Fire and Drum Corps, the Darktown Fire Brigade and trimmed floats representing the businesses of L. J. Bevan, Lewis T. Rodan, McMullen Brothers, Hendricks & Mariner and W. A. Gorton. One of the attractive features of the parade was that of Walter F. Leedom, the coal dealer, who had attached to a loaded chute wagon four heavy draught horses, driven tandem.

A humorous display was an "automobile" which was a vehicle with a beast of the towpeth between the wheels. Pullbearers carried the corpse of Democracy, and the Darktown Fire Company's hook and ladder was a work of art. Three hundred torch bearers were in line. The whole made an imposing spectacle and thousands of people witnessed the march.

On last Thursday evening in the Catholic Club rooms an entertainment was held in conjunction with the presentation of a handsome piano to the Catholic Club of Bristol by a Philadelphia firm. A very pleasing programme was rendered.

The Good of the Order of Jr. O. U. A. M. of Philadelphia visited the Bristol Council at Mechanics' Hall, Bristol, last Thursday evening. They were met by the Fidelity Guards at the station and escorted to the hall. The speeches were made by William L. Bell, Doron Green, of Bristol Council; Frederick Kopp, president of Good of the Order, and Deputy State Councilor; George W. Judas receives thirty pieces of silver from the priests to betray Jesus.

Church Photos
Jesus leads his disciples in the Last Supper.

AMONG HIS disciples was one who plotted with the scribes and the chief priests to betray Jesus. This one, Judas Iscariot, contracted with them for thirty pieces of silver to deliver Jesus into their hands. At the Last Supper, Jesus revealed His knowledge that one of the 12 would betray Him. As He broke the bread, He said, "Take, eat: this is My body," and as He lifted the cup, He said, "This is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many."

NO-LOOK COOK

MANSFIELD, O. — (INS) — Housewives no longer need worry about over-cooking and destroying health-giving nutrients in food. A new electronically-controlled electric range surface unit has been developed that eliminates the possibility of burning or scorching — even if all water boils away and no matter how over-long food remains cooking. The unit measures, then maintains, the temperature of food cooking in a pan, automatically turning current off and on as needed.

DOCTOR SHORTAGE

BRUSSELS — (INS) — "Spotlight", bulletin of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions at Brussels, noted acute shortage of doctors and medicines in Soviet satellite countries. It said the lack of doctors largely results from indiscriminate induction of physicians into the armed forces, discrimination against and prosecution of non-Communist doctors and inadequate training.

No Telephone, So Pilot Waves Wings To Wife

Transport Flyer Commutes In Cessna Plane Based At 3-M Airport

LEVITTOWN, Mar. 30 — For the benefit of local pioneers who are perplexed by the absence of telephones, here's how Albert Snyder, of 71, Black Pine lane, tells his wife, Norma, that he's coming home from work.

Snyder a pilot, flies C-46 Curtiss transport planes from Teterboro, N. J., to all parts of the United States. He commutes from here to Teterboro in his own little Cessna 140, based at 3-M Airport.

Flying home from Teterboro, Snyder circles above his house before arriving at the local airport. Mrs. Snyder comes outside the house, waves her apron in acknowledgement, and then drives to the 3-M field to pick up her commuting husband.

Snyder is associated with World Airways, a non-scheduled airline that contracts with the armed forces to take servicemen from one base in the U. S. to another. He often flies the men from the east to debarcation points in California and Seattle, Washington, and returns Korean veterans from the coast.

The air trip to California, with several stops along the way, takes Snyder about 16 hours. He is quite at home in the C-46, as he flew that type airplane in the China-Burma-India theater during World War II, taking military cargo "over the hump" in the Himalayan Mountains. He was flight officer in the Army Air Corps Transport Command.

After the war, he set up Snyder Aviation, a G. I. flight training school he operated in Barrington, N. J., and later in Moorestown, N. J. He closed the school a year ago, after five years operation, to fly for World Airways.

Snyder learned his aviation before the war, when he was a bus boy in Atlantic City, N. J., taking lessons at the Atlantic City airport in his spare time. Later he took additional training at Roosevelt Boulevard Airport.

In 1942 he became a civilian instructor, teaching at the Army Primary Flight School in Bennettsville, S. C., for two years before becoming an Army man himself.

The Levittown pilot once in awhile enjoys a busman's holiday, taking his wife, and their 3½-year-old son, Mark, for a ride in the Cessna. Mrs. Snyder enjoys being a passenger in the plane, and Mark likes to "co-pilot."

As for flying to work, Snyder insists that's its the most economical way as well as the quickest way to get there. The flight to Teterboro takes 45 minutes, he says, and gas and oil expenses are less than would be incurred by a car making the trip. And, the pilot adds, he can forget about the turnpike toll.

Kaiser Metal Ties Playoff Series By Win Over Franklin

Kaiser Metal tied the playoff series of the Bristol Basketball League by whipping Franklin A. C., 68-15, yesterday on the Rohm and Haas court. Each team has now won a game with the third and deciding game scheduled for Tuesday night at eight o'clock.

The aircraft workers were really hitting with their shots as they dropped in 24 field goals and 20 out of 29 fouls. Franklin missed many shots early in the game and didn't start to cut until the start of the final period.

The start of the last quarter saw a 20-point Kaiser lead of 55-35 dwindle to 57-48 and was finally checked when Jerry Bloom and Eddie Boyle hit for field goals to stop a Franklin skunk of 11 straight points. From then on, Kaiser was master of the situation and again built up its lead to 17 points at the finish.

The Kaisermen lead from the start, possessing a 16-10 lead at the end of the first quarter and half-time lead of 33-21. The latter edge was gathered when Kaiser scored five points in the last eight seconds of play.

"Eddie" Boyle, former Temple University star, was the leader of the Kaiser scoring attack with 18 points made on six field goals and six out of 8 fouls. Jerry Bloom chipped in with 13 points and played a beautiful floor game, having several assists to his credit. Johnny Rodgers also made 13 points and meshed in two nice shots at critical stages to offset Franklin scoring threats. Tommy Gavin did a nice job in getting the rebounds.

Franklin had a hard time in finding the range of the net in the first quarter. Bill Curran started the scoring with a foul. Gavin made two free shots to give Kaiser a 2-1 lead. Jerry Bloom and Hooks Spencer scored fouls for their teams. Boyle and Rodgers hit for twin-pointers to give Kaiser an 8-2 lead. Curran made a Franklin foul and followed with Franklin's first field goal, making the score 8-5. Eddie Oliver dropped in a lone one to cut the lead to 8-7. Grant and Bob Lattanzi scored for their respective teams, the score being 10-9. Grant Eckert tied the score with a foul. Boyle hit for a pair of double-deckers and Howard Grant scored another to give Kaiser a 16-10 lead.

Eckert added two points to the Franklin total but fouls by Grant and Jim Gallagher and a Gavin field goal increased the Kaiser edge to 20-12. Lattanzi scored for Franklin but Grant retaliated for Kaiser. Eckert made a two-pointer but Bloom got it back for Kaiser. Eckert again scored for Franklin but Boyle scored a field goal and foul to give Kaiser a 27-18 lead. Lattanzi scored a two-pointer and followed with a foul to cut the edge to 27-21. But Boyle came through with a conversion and before the finish, Bloom and Rodgers accounted for field goals, to make the score, 33-21.

Kaiser was at its best in the third quarter when it tabbed 22 points. Gavin, Bloom, Rodgers and Boyle had a pair of double-deckers each with Gavin also adding three fouls. Oliver had three field goals and a foul for Franklin as the score ended 55-35.

Franklin had a spurt at the beginning of the last session. Oliver scored but Bloom got it back for Kaiser, the scoring being 57-37. Eckert made a foul and Lattanzi a field goal for Franklin. Curran followed with three field goals in succession to shave the lead to 57-46. When Lattanzi and Curran dunked foul goals, the score was 57-48. Bloom and Boyle broke up the attack with field goals. After Curran made another foul, Rodgers scored for Kaiser and towards the finish Rodgers again scored. Jim Gallagher put on the finishing touches with a pair of field goals with less than a minute remaining to be played.
